

Discussion item: TDM Technical Committee term limits

For the committee's consideration:

Add to the committee's bylaws:

1. Committee members who serve in termed positions are encouraged to vacate their position after two consecutive four-year terms to provide opportunities for other interested individuals to serve on the committee.

Or

2. Committee members who serve in termed positions are limited to serving in the same seat for more than two consecutive four-year terms.

Background:

The CTR law (below) dictates that certain seats serve four-year terms. However, CTR law, rules, and the committee's bylaws are silent on the number of terms served by members in those termed positions. There may be value in the committee adopting term limits in bylaws to allow other stakeholders the opportunity to serve on the committee and/or maintain fresh perspectives on the committee.
